DAZZLE DAD

This Father's Day, shower dad with gifts and adventures that echo his idea of the good life

For dads who dig a weekend motorcycle ride, Ducati of Santa Barbara, 320 W. Carrillo St., Santa Barbara, 805-884-8443, ducatiوسف.com, boasts a showroom of brand-new models, including the Ducati 1098S ($14,999)—a superbike with “cutting-edge performance mixed with beautiful Italian style,” says sales manager Carlin Dunne.

For cigar aficionados or those who simply enjoy an occasional stogie, Santa Barbara Cigar & Tobacco, 10 W. Figueroa St., Santa Barbara, 805-963-1979—

Santa Barbara's only full-service tobacconist—carries an extensive inventory of the finest cigars and accessories for a range of tastes and budgets. Give dad a Bugatti lighter ($250-$300) or a premium cigar—popular sellers include the Fuente Fuente Opus X ($15-$50), Tatuaje ($11-$20) and Avo ($9-$18).

From The Artful Angler, 3817 Santa Claus Ln., Carpinteria, 805-566-5900, artfulangler.com—Santa Barbara's fly-fishing resource for rods, reels and other accessories—dads who long to cast can enjoy lessons ($50-$300) and personal guides ($150-$350) in fresh- and saltwater fishing in local lakes, streams and surf—the domain of barred perch, halibut, corbina and more.

Surprise surfer dads with a stand-up paddleboard by Ron House, 949-291-5524, ronhousepaddlesurf.com, the go-to board shaper for clients that include famed surfer Laird Hamilton, actor Adam Sandler and musician Eddie Vedder. Hamilton provides design input to Ron's custom creations, ranging from the 12-foot, all-purpose board ($14,00) to the Coastal Cruiser, a 14-foot racing/touring board ($1,600).

Show Pop you care with surf-inspired apparel from Old Guys Rule, 805-954-1195, oldguysrule.com, a line of vintage-inspired shirts, sweatshirts, boxer shorts and more—a baseball hat with a hidden bottle opener ($23) is a fun choice—that reflect the local company's aim to celebrate “a guy being able to spend his time the way he has always dreamed of.” -k.w.
